
FOR SALE, WANT, LOST, ETC.

FOR SALE: — A reg. blouse, hat and cap — No 5 Goodwin.

WANTED— An “Elements of Forestry,” by Moon and Brown. Ross 41.

WANTED— Three copies of “Power Transmission,” by Kerr. — Mitchell 74.

WANTED— Wing’s “Milk and Its Products”, also Moss Manual. Notify 4 Pfeuffer.

Dont forget that I have Hersheys, chewing gum, tobacco, cigars dental cream, shaving cream, soap, shoe polish, shoe laces, etc. for sale.— R. Pagan-Ortiz, 56 Milner.

That Feeling of Satisfaction.

What makes some fellows have more self-respect than others? Why, clothes have a great deal to do with it. With your coat and trousers pressed, your shoes polished and your hat or cap on straight, you look fairly presentable, regardless of the cost of the garments.

Let us help you to keep up a “good front.” Cleaning, pressing and alterations at a moderate price

Students’ Tailor Shop,
Tumlinson and Anderson.

THE QUEEN, Bryan

Fine special attraction Saturday: Harold Lockwood in “Pidgin Island.”

Edwin Clapp and
Bostonian Shoes

Men’s Underwear
and Neckwear

Edwin Clapp and
Bostonian Shoes

WEBB BROS.

Bryan

Guard Detail.

For February 11, 1917.

Officer of the Day:

Cadet. Priv Cather, H. M.

Officer of the Guard:

Cadet Lieut. Chappelle, R. L.

WANTED: — A second hand “Elements of Forestry” by Moon and Brown. Notify No. 7 Ross.

FOR SALE CHEAP—A complete uniform No. 1 in first class condition; “General Chemistry,” by Mc Pherson and Henderson; “College Botany,” by Atkinson; “Business English and Correspondence” by Davis and Lingham; “Livestock Judging for Beginners”. All of these articles are in first class condition as they were used only one month last term. H. F. Heep, 10 Foster.