

To Students Not Registered.

The attention of the cadets who have not yet registered for the second term is called to Article 83 Blue Book, which reads as follows: "The days of registration for the first term shall be the first Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of the session; and for the second term the last three days of the first term and the first day of the second term. All students except those entering for the first time, who do not complete their registration within the time specified, will thereby automatically sever their connection with the college, and must pay a registration fee of three dollars in order to re-enter."
