Inside Information.

On bulletin board No. 8. Main Building, see a letter that puts the shoe question plainly. The price is due to rise again in a few days and soon it may be impossible to get shoes at any price due to the orders of the quartermaster who can hold all the output of the factory. I want to get the shoes you may need in transit before he shuts down on my orders. If I haven't got what you want here, let me know now so that I can telegraph an order. Anticipation of your wants and quick action will save money for you now.
