

The Daily Bulletin

VOL. VIII

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1924.

NO. 63

PRESBYTERIANS HAVE BUILDING PLAN MADE

Want Local Students and Officials to Pledge Their Limit and Build Manse and Pay for Lot.

A program to secure definite results in building a manse and beginning the creation of a fund for a church building on the lot owned by The First Presbyterian Church of College Station has been initiated by Reverend C. Fred Hancock, pastor, Dr. E. O. Randolph, clerk and M. H. Mimms, president student cabinet. With a membership of 400 local residents and students and the promise of help from the home mission board of the church he feels that concerted action by the local group will enable a big accomplishment without a heavy burden on anyone.

"I want to call the attention of Presbyterians to the fact that we have a program and that we are capable of carrying out a strong plan if we can only get concerted action," he said yesterday in discussing his aims. "We have nearly 400 people, a sufficient number to do things without putting a heavy burden on anyone.

"Our first duty should be to pay off the indebtedness on the lot. There is now due, according to the last report $1635 on this lot north of the Campus. After a conference with a number of the students it seems to me feasible that the nearly 300 students of the Presbyterian group pay the remainder on this lot this school year.

"A manse is very much needed in order that the pastor may have a permanent home near the Campus. This will enable him to give more efficient service. If the students take care of the lot the Campus people should then devote their efforts and support to the erection of the pastor's home.

"Dr. Brooks I. Dickey, superintendent of the State Home Missions was in Bryan last week and while here stated that he saw no reason why we cannot borrow the money needed to finish the manse after we
(Continued on page 4)

BATTALION FOOTBALL EDITION DECEMBER 10

The Football Edition of The Battalion will be distributed Wednesday, December 10.

On account of an extra expense incurred by the publication of a twenty page edition, last week's issue was omitted.

THE EDITOR.

PROF. WHITE WILL ADDRESS SOCIAL SCIENCE SEMINAR

Professor R. C. White, of the Department of Rural Sociology, will address the Social Science Seminar Monday night at 8 o'clock in the lecture room of the Physics building. The subject of the address will be "The Psychology of War." Everyone is invited to attend and contribute to the discussion. Secretary.

ALL LONGHORN MATERIAL MUST BE IN BEFORE DEC. 10

All material for the 1925 Longhorn must be in to me at 4 Mitchell not later than December 10.

HOWARD JOHNSON, Mgr. Editor,
THE LONGHORN

GRADUATE STUDENTS MUST HAVE PICTURES MADE NOW

All graduate students who wish to have their pictures in the 1925 Longhorn will have their pictures made at the College Studio not later than next Tuesday. For full information see Newt Jones at the Y. M. C. A.

DAVID BAXT, editor,
THE LONGHORN

A true success my life can be,
Though fame and riches I renounce
It isn't what Life gives to me,
But what I bring to Life
That counts.

—R. C. McCann.

FOR SALE—Furniture—new Perfection stove, kitchen cabinet, dining and living room suites, bed, rugs, etc
Phone College 208.—63

BISHOP BYRNE WILL SPEAK THIS MORNING

Sunday School at 9:15; Denominational Services This Evening; Special Class Meetings.

Bishop C. E. Byrne will speak at the regular convocation in Guion Hall this morning, beginning at 10:50 o'clock. Mrs. Webb Howell of Bryan will sing.

The following schedules of today's programs by the various denominations, have been announced by the group officers:

Baptist Services

Only two more Sundays to attend church at A. & M. before the Christmas holidays. Let us make our attendance at all services today the best of the year. Meet us at Sunday School and start the day right. We shall expect you.

R. L. BROWN, pastor.

Presbyterian Services

Remember the appointments for today. Sunday School at 9:15 in Guion Hall, junior C. E. at 2:30 p. m. in the Chapel, senior C. E. at 6:45 and preaching at 7:30. We have been hoping that the Freshman Sunday School class would become so large that it would be necessary to divide the class and invite an additional teacher. We invite every Presbyterian freshman to meet with us this morning. The subject of the sermon tonight will be "The 'I Ams' of Christ".

C. FRED HANCOCK, pastor

Senior Bible Class

The Senior Bible class will meet this morning at 9:30 in the Y. M. C. A. parlors for its regular period of study and discussion. Every senior is urged to be present. You will miss something if you are absent.

A. A. WARD, class president.

Episcopal Services

The Episcopalians will observe Holy Communion this morning at 8:30 o'clock.
(Continued on Page 2)