

Clark, entertained a party of her friends. With her characteristic hospitality and grace, the charming hostess made everybody welcome, at home, and happy. Although the weather without was miserable, the atmosphere within was laden with all that soothes and delights the soul. The occasion was a delightful one indeed, and music, dancing, and a delicious repast toward the noon of night, all conspired to render this a social event that will long be remembered by all present.

Following is a list of those present: Misses Ada Lee Polk, Clark, Willman, Fannie and Marie McQueen, Lessie McConnico, May Webb, Maytelle Shepard, Winnie and Katie Parker. Messrs. Abbott, Bruce, Bittle, Houston, Howell, Ellis, Dazey, Massenburg, Gilbert, Pittuck and Ross.

DRAMATIC CLUB.

At the last regular meeting it was decided that Damon and Pythias will be the next play the club will present to the public. You have seen what a success Ingomar was, so you may expect Damon and Pythias will be as ably rendered. The cast with the exception of Mr. Waldron who will take the part of Damon has not been selected yet. It will probably be some time in the spring before the play will be presented. Messrs. Luckett, Fowler and Hutson W. were elected members and Mrs. Spence an honorary member of the club.

Pres. L. S. Ross took a business trip to Austin last week.

Rev. T. C. Bittle held divine services in Bryan on the 7th.

Mr. Gilbert paid his son, Captain Joe Gilbert, a short visit last week.

Mrs. Spence enjoyed the holidays with her parents in Hempstead.

Who is the gallant second-classman who has so many delightful dreams?

Misses Rita Sbisca and Bessie Ross visited the societies at the last meeting.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Harrington has recovered from her illness.

Miss Nina Hill, of Hempstead, visited friends at the College during Thanksgiving week.

Prof. Winstead and Mr. Wharton of Bryan were visitors of the College during the last month.

Miss Mary Bittle, who has been attending school in Dallas, returned home to spend the holidays.

Mr. Dan Cushing, the Alumni correspondent, is doing good work for the BATTALION. He is trying to secure the biographies from all of the graduates.
