

WANTED.

A mustache—Pittuck.
 A face—Dinwiddie.
 A room-mate—Bruce.
 A sweetheart—Bittle, A.
 A pair of straight legs—Benchey.
 Ditto—Joe Full Bend.
 Dancing lessons—Todd.
 To do away with Shunk—Fowler.
 Clean clothes from the laundry—The Corps.
 A sergeantship—Trimble.
 To suspend reveille—Fort O.
 A new shape—Dan.
 A few dollars and more time—First class.
 A knowledge of tactics.—Second class.
 A place in the foot ball team—Fitzgerald, B.
 To be a tragedian—Matthews.
 First class privileges—Jordan and McMillan.
 A charter—2 C. N.
 A corporalship—Sandy.
 Cold weather—Snow.
 To be an orchestrian—Dechman.
 To go to Hearne—Frog-face.
 To be a poet—Fowler.
 To know the whereabouts of Gilhooly—Morse.
 January 6, a gun—Fish.
 March 15, "Angels to steal them away.—ex-Fish.
 Money—Dramatic Club.
 Anti-fat—Parks.
 To be pretty—"Aligator" Hill.
 A man to take charge of sugar plantation—Ross.

Two first-classmen to take a course in horticulture.—Prof. Price.

An instrument to see through—Harper.

An instructor in the art of tennis playing—Winstead and Sims.

To learn some other system of short-hand—Lockett.

The establishment of a pawn shop at College.—Bittle.

To meet a nice shapely pair of trousers—Dazey.

Rev. Sam Jones for chapel next year—Howell.

Did Cali whip Gilhooly.

"To-morrow is Monday."

What does Sergeant put soap on his head for?

Where did Lockett learn to write sbort-hand?

Mr. Wilkins, an ex-cadet, paid us a short visit recently.

O! She's too sweet to live. "Indeed." How about it Att?

Several of the first-class went in to hear Sam Jones lecture.

McMillan has turned his attention from girls to chemistry. Why?

Dr. Francis took a business trip to Austin during the past month.

What about the misprint Harper made in the mathematical section room?

What did Harper have in his hand when he came from the depot the other day?

Mr. Hollack, Navasota's popular jeweler, visited the College recently. His