

We clip the two following personals from the Galveston Tribune. Messrs. Vidor and Stowe are both ex-cadets of the College:

Capt. Walter S. Vidor, of the Washington Guards, resigned his position of commandant last Tuesday night. The vacancy will be filled at a meeting to be held on the first Tuesday in February.

A sweet baby girl has arrived to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Stowe, jr. Friend John is very much elated over arrival and feels proud that he is entitled to the cognomen of "papa."

On Friday night during the past month several of the First Class called at the hospitable home of Miss May Webb. They found assembled there several young ladies which added much to the pleasures of the afternoon. After spending several delightful hours in conversation and partaking of delicacies, such as this young lady can prepare, the gentlemen escorted these young ladies to their respective homes. Miss May, with her pleasant smile and winning ways has endeared herself to her many College friends.

Ex-cadet Will Allen, of Marlin, recently visited Bryan. A Bryan girl was the attraction.

MISCELLANY.

Her Third Venture.

For the third time in her life, the erstwhile, airy, fairy Lillian Russell, before whose shrine have worshipped the "Johnnies" of Gotham for the last decade, stood at the altar recently and promised to "love, honor and obey" her future "lord and master," John Chatterton, whose nom de theatre is Signor Perigini. At 10 o'clock on the 21st of January Miss Russell, in company with her mother, Mrs. Cynthia Leonard, her sister, Mrs. Alfred T. Chultx, Mrs. Owen Westwood, Miss Hallie Leonard, and her press agent, "Teddie" Piper, were carried across the ferry to the residence of Civil Justice Mollerly in Hoboken. Awaiting them were Groom-elect Edwin Hoff of the Bostonians and Thomas Daly.

The marriage was consummated within five minutes. The entire party returned to the bride's home on Seventy-seventh street where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. A dinner was tendered by Signor Perigini and bride, at which were present the bride's mother and sisters, Mme. Lillian Nordica, Col. and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Daly, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hoff, Fred Schwab and "Teddie" Piper. The bride received many valuable gifts, among them being two necklaces of diamonds, a tiara of diamonds and sapphires, a diamond sunburst, two sets of sterling silver knives and forks, a chest of old silver, morocco leather traveling bag with sterling silver fittings and two score of jeweled rings and bracelets.

A Georgia editor says that some men want money, some office, some fame, some popularity, a few of them want religion, but the most of them want the earth.

Electricity can now look inside a man's intestines. Pretty soon it will be illuminating his brain and tell the world what he is thinking about. But that won't overwork a small battery, as so few think about anything.—Statesman.
