Drill, Drill! Drill!!

Ram, Rams! Rammed!!

Confinement and extra orders of duty!

That's what the "fresh fish" get!

Subscribe for the Commencement BATTALION.

The natatorium is completed, much to the delight of all.

Only two more months before Commencement

No more examinations until June!
 Such a relief to our overburdened minds!

A very sad occurrence happened last month, which cast a gloom over the college. It was that of the suicide of our friend and comrade, William A. Anglin, of Groesbeck. The cause remains a mystery.

The First Class has commenced target practice, and the familiar crack of the guns can be heard all during the day.

We will soon cease to be "drawers of water," for the water main is now being laid.

Under the management of Mrs. Lieut. Morse, the "Cadet Choir" is gaining quite a reputation.

Now is the time for all Cadets to look their best, and have their "image struck" to exchange.

The Senior Classmen are getting their material in shape for their graduating theses.

The natatorium will soon be completed. The work has been delayed some on account of bad weather.

The new boiler which was purchased some time ago by the college has been put in its place and is now ready to furnish enough steam to run a hundred horse power engine.

The electric fans for the mess hall have arrived and will soon be put into operation, and it is hoped they will prove a success, as the cadets for many years have been compelled to fight flies during the meal hours.

We are no more in winter quarters. It is glorious spring, and we are to drill till June. Orders were published to that effect on the 7th ult. How beautiful does the old campus loom up as we go marching on. It is as level as a billiard table, with its green, soft carpet, studded
