

They Say

That Duggan and Dicky Peden want to learn how to dance for the Commencement hop.

That the corps desires to thank the Board of Directors for the fine natatorium which we are now enjoying.

That the Ross Volunteer hop was the grandest event ever had at the College.

That College wants a more interesting game of ball than the one between Bryan and College.

That Will D. wants the bottom of the natatorium padded.

That Frank R. wants to be an athlete.

That Luckett wants the battalion to march in single file.

That Bruce will stop in Waco.

That McMillan wants a Saturday to himself.

That the First class wants larger targets.

That Abe is now in a position to teach vocal lessons.

That Morse never stopped a ball.

That Sims wants a class in fancy penmanship.

That Law wants an introduction to Lillian Lewis.

That Breezy Time orchestra is gaining quite a rep under the leadership of Senior Liberati DeChaux.

That our Chinaman is a sport.

That Adams wants to live in Waco.

That Dinwiddie is a base ball player.

That Abe Gross wants a rubber bag to put over his head to keep the water out of that gash in his face.

That Adams wants a part in the pay.

That Pittuck has at last received his rubber neck.

That Adams, McMillan and Law wanted to go home with somebody.

That Dinwiddie wants to be at both trains when on duty.

That Dinwiddie wants to keep his mouth open when witnessing a rehearsal.

That Dr. Bocoock has lost his mind. A liberal reward will be given to the finder.

That Jerry S. is a sport. Is that so Jerry?

That Law wants to learn how to swim, also Peden.

That Eichelberger has got a job.

That Henry Martin is a flirt (?)

That Red Watkins wants a muzzle to go into the natatorium.

That Kerr J. wants to know the declination of the compass needle at College Station.

That Schwebunk has not yet received his violin string.

That Webb Howell wishes his meals brought to the gymnasium and also desires to recite there.

That the Bryan base ball team wants a trainer before making another engagement with the College.

That Holman wants a table all to himself.

That Fort wants to buy concert tickets.

That Frank R. always borrows a ticket when the young ladies come around. Why does he?

That the staff wants a live waiter.

That the Ross Volunteers want to drill oftener and not to be disturbed.

That everybody is saving a quarter for a Commencement BATTALION.