

months of September and October. Verily, it is a good beginning.

Upon motion the President has appointed the following committees: Reception—Leavell, Bryan, Eblin, McGee; Invitation—Pfeuffer Hall, Kerr S.; Ross Hall, Barclay, G. W.; Austin Hall, Winston; Mess Hall, Robinson; Hospital, Jodd, Hooper, Lowry. The committees can perform much good work in their respective fields. They should be consulted upon all matters pertaining to their particular line of work.

Local Department.

H. C. KYLE, EDITOR.

Why is it that Roberts objects to being kissed?

F. D. Perkins spent a few days at home this month.

Park's "understanding" now has a rival in those of McGee.

Who was it that went to the book-keeper to find out the lesson?

Kerr E. claims that Kyle H. regulates his step by the heliograph.

Parks says that after he graduates he is going to pose for living pictures.

A number of the cadets attended the Texas Fair and Dallas Exposition.

Miley wants to know who said the mules were not "honest" at the picnic.

Sloan should reside in a country where only "Sorghum" and "Wheat" grow.

We are glad to see Kyle H., after a long sickness, attending to his duties again.

It is stated that "Dr." Kyle will soon get out a second sick report each morning.

Finnev says he hates to disappoint the girls, but really he hasn't time to rush society.