Ex-Cadet Seward is married. We wish he and his bride a long life of happiness,

Ask Riley what he was hunting for on second stoop Austin one night not long ago.

If you have any jokes send them to the head of this department. They are always welcome.

The uniforms from the new contractors do not give satisfaction—the boys all complain of a misfit.

At a recent meeting of the commissioned officers Miss Bessie Ross was elected sponsor of the battalion.

You do not need to take out an accident policy if you get shaved at Duke's barber shop. (Razors too dull)

A certain "fish" while sentinel the other night called out, "Corporal of the guards, come here quick? Second stoop, Ross !"

After Christmas I. L. Goldberg will part his hair in the middle, letting the wavy ringlets fall in graceful profusion over his swan-like neck.
