

with only some 150 graduates. During the first five years of the existing of the college there were no regular classes as they exist now and hence no full graduates. Aside from this fact there are many who enter and are unable by reason of financial embarrassment or other trouble to remain the full term and graduate. Notwithstanding this the nongraduates are today filling positions of prominence and trust all over the state. It is hoped that the Alpha Phi Fraternity will be the means of reviving old friendships and especially of keeping alive among the ex-students and graduates an interest in the welfare of the college. This influence is growing with each year. This fraternity will in no way interfere with the Alumni association but will work with it for the advancement of the college.

One of the features of the Fraternity will be to render assistance to its members in securing employment. Another will be the Fraternity book which will be furnished to each member with a list of members and each year a circular will be issued giving any change in address or item of interest concerning the members so that each member will be kept posted as to his fellows.

All ex-cadets are urged to join and lend their assistance in making the Fraternity a success.

Pointers.

Bob Burns, Raff and George MacCormick "rode the goat" at Houston and are now enthusiastic "Alpha Phi's"

The campus council are considering the advisability of a called meeting at Dallas during the fair to work on the first and second degrees. If fifteen favorable replies are received the meeting will be called.

The membership books will be issued about October 1, and the biographic circular about Dec. 31, this year.

The constitution committee are working hard and their efforts will no doubt result in a set of laws that will be unexceptionable.

Send in your applications early boys. The degrees will be