

conferred in order of application. Get in and see the other fellows go through the ceremonies.

Peters thinks the ceremony very interesting but the recruits uniform not in accordance with the U. S. army regulations.

Judge Sleeper (79) and Judge Fuller (80) are earnest members of the Fraternity. Both are prominent members of the Texas Bar.

All the members are known to each other by their numbers.

4 plus 9 makes an unlucky number but 4 and 9 in this fraternity makes a "whole team."

How does "Alpha Phi Hall" strike you? See next issue of Battalion.

J. G. McNeil of '96, is spending a few days at College.

A. U. Smith, the genial senior captain of '95, is now a resident of college.

Cadets, when you visit Bryan don't forget to visit those merchants who advertise in the Battalion.

After three months of pleasant recreation we have once more cast our lot with the A. & M. C. as students.

The business manager wishes to thank Messrs. Palmer and Carnes, of the Bryan Eagle, for many favors rendered.

It is with no little pleasure that we notice the increased interest which is being shown in the literary societies and their work.

We are glad to say that under its efficient leader, Mr. Gross,
