

That Williams sold newspapers on the streets of Austin.

That Lieutenant Caven don't know what "gyp" water is.

That Blount stole the heart of one of Nacogdoches' fair damsels.

That Knolle picked cotton for his board during the past vacation.

That Adj. Shires has raised a mustache especially for his sweet heart.

That 1st. Sergeant Martin gave a week's "cush" for three opals to send to his girl.

---

Among the Boys.

Shires F., "The Girl I left Behind Me."

Cox hunts for the "soldier of the day."

When did Hutch get to be assistant professor of English?

The recent rains have had no effect on Adj. Shires' whiskers.

Hubbard says nitrogen tastes bitter and smells like rotten eggs.

Todd would like to occupy the dome of the capital at Austin.

Politics at the College is in the hands of "Sir John" Elliott.

Barnes R. makes hydrogen by treating zinc with "hydraulic" acid.

Blount J. is the character Touchstone in "As You Like It."

Heigh! high! ho! "Si" Perkins and football will soon be all the go.

Mead makes a good hand to help rush "fish" into the commandants office.

Carson, when asked to render into Latin, "It is water," says "sum aqua."

The meeting of Durham and Knolle alias Castor and Pol-lux, was touching indeed,