

cises, and squad drill ; neither company repeating the drill of the former. The drill was creditable throughout.

EXTENDED ORDER DRILL.

The battalion was then reformed, and extended order drill executed with blank amunition, with excellent results.

ARTILLERY DETACHMENT.

Manual of the piece with blank amunition well executed.

SIGNAL DRILL.

The signal detachment was reported, but owing to the lateness of the hour, no practice or exercise was given.

INSPECTION OF QUARTERS.

The quarters were inspected and found to be neat, clean, well arranged, and comfortable.

MESSING.

The mess hall was inspected, and the formation of the battalion at mess call (supper) witnessed. The battalion was formed at quarters and proceeded by the band playing, marched to the mess hall, entered and seated without confusion, and upon the entrance of the inspector came to attention promptly. The mess hall and messing facilities are excellent, and the system of discipline thorough and creditable.

ARMORY.

The armory is suitable and neat, and the arms are securely and carefully stored.

ARMS.

Pieces field artillery.....	2
Cadet rifles.....	230

BAND.

The band of this college is deserving of special notice. It is composed of fifteen good musicians, supplied with the best instruments, is thoroughly trained and efficient. Its organization and high standing is due to the efforts of Lieutenant Bartlett.

This college was last inspected by Brevet Brigadier General