

Fraternity shall be paid direct to the quartermaster as hereinbefore provided.

The secretary of each local chapter shall submit a report to the adjutant on the 15th of May, each year, giving roster of its members and a brief account of the transactions for the year previous. A member of the Fraternity may affiliate with any chapter he desires, or he may not join a chapter if he so elects.

Art. 3. Each chapter must enforce its own by-laws and a suspension from a local chapter will not deprive a person of his privileges as a member of the Fraternity, but chapters may prefer charges to the Campus Council against any of its members for improper conduct.

Art. 4. Chapters must not adopt any rules or engage in anything which would reflect discredit upon the Fraternity or which is in conflict with its purposes and objects.

SECTION IX.

Article 1. The Fraternity may undertake the construction of a building for its accommodation or for such purposes as they may desire when they see fit to do so, under such regulations as may be hereafter adopted at a regular meeting of the Fraternity.

SECTION X.

Article 1. This Constitution can only be altered as follows: Any member desiring to alter or amend any provision hereof or to add any provision hereto shall submit same to Campus Council at least thirty days prior to the annual meeting. If the council deems the amendment desirable they will advise every member of the Fraternity by mail of the proposed change, and shall present same to the annual meeting. It shall be read twice at such meeting, and if it receives a two-thirds vote of all members present, shall be declared adopted, and shall become in full force and effect.

If the Campus Council does not deem the amendment desirable they shall notify the member proposing same, and shall take no action until such member deposits with the adjutant a sum sufficient to defray all expense of communicating same to the Fraternity. On receipt of such sum the council shall proceed as above.
