

Prof. Smith made an overland trip to Huntsville during the holidays, returning by same route.

Prof. W. B. Philpott's whereabouts during Christmas week are unknown—Houston the most favorable place, but, then we don't know.

Texarkana held Prof. Tilson for two weeks during the holidays.

Prof. A. L. Banks did not go far Christmas—only to Bryan.

Prof. Spence visited Hempstead last month, accompanied by wife and child.

Prof. Kerr returned from home this month, where he had been confined for several weeks on account of sickness.

Prof. Burgoon on his return after holidays spent much time making beautiful woodwork for some one, evidently a young lady—secretaries with pin cushions, etc. Success to you.

H. C. Kyle has been elected farm foreman, vice J. M. Carson, resigned.

Miss Polk of San Antonio, who has been visiting Lieutenant George Bartlett for some time past, has returned to her home.

Miss Edith Whitlock, sister of Prof. R. H. Whitlock, has returned to Vassar college.

Gus Japhet ('94) paid the college a pleasant visit, bringing a younger brother, and entering him as a student.

The Glee club intends giving a concert some time during February.

The Austin Literary society has an annual celebration on the 22d of February.

The Alumni association feels certain of a large attendance next commencement. All should feel a personal interest in this.

The "Alpha Phi's" of the campus are Professors Philpott, Tilson, Pittuck, Banks and Ness, Prof. Gieseke's application has been accepted and the fraternity expects all cadets on the campus to join. The door is open for them and a strong local chapter will be formed adding local benefit to be derived from membership.

Remember the Alpha Phi and its objects.

Fish! fish! fish! Served in all styles at Mess hall.

Cohn, Perkins and Cotton—"The Dramatists."

To become a private is the fashion.