

Morrison sleeps in the position of a $.

Yarbrough E. is desirous of knowing where the matrimony bureau is located.

Sloss A. informed his teacher that he failed to meditate over his physics.

The corps desires to know who won Faust W's. heart during the holidays.

Riley, the "prince of mathematicians," states that 36 in. make 1 ft.

Miss Bittle has returned to the campus after a pleasant visit to Miss Roberts at Terrell.

We are glad to announce the return of Sam Cohn, the popular musician and senior classman.

Plans are being made for the organization of two base ball teams. Push the matter along and we can prove our superiority in this line as we did in foot ball.

The commencement banquet to be given by the two literary societies promises to be an interesting social event. A toast will be delivered by each member present, followed by the love feast.

At a recent meeting of the Austin Literary society the following programme was selected for the annual celebration February 22d: Declaimer McGee; essayist, Sloss A.; orator, Prof. B. C. Pittuck. Debate: Resolved that the United States should recognize Cuban independence. Affirmative, McCarthy; negative, Bland.

A young lady at De Leon, Texas, is surprised that Person should select such a "wild wood lily" as she is for his dearest friend.

At a joint meeting of the Austin and Calliopean literary societies held on the 16th instant, Benjamin T. Bryan, the popular captain of B. company, was unanimously chosen as our representative at the "Inter-state oratorical contest." Mr. Bryan is a man of great literary ability, a brilliant orator and in his selection we feel confident that the A. & M. will carry off high honors if not first prize.

Rumor has it that Rodgers contemplates taking a trip to China. Is he to become a benedict?

The A. & M. can now boast of a dramatic club, and the corps of cadets can look forward to the production of at least two standard plays. Following is a list of the officers elected: President, C. C. Todd; vice president, T. O. Durham; secretary, O. T. McCarthy; treasurer, Cotton; business manager, Sam Cohn.