

LOCAL.

McCARTHY, Editor.

That dramatic club.

Corporals Monroe—Here! Here! Here!

Lambkin says Wheat made 99 in Athletics.

Buhler attends volunteer metalurgy practice.

Where, oh, where did Neely, R. L., get that step?

Thomas wants to buy a cap chord with a knot in it.

Sloss, A., says he is surely going to rank among the 6's.

Have you seen Cotton's new tie with the Persian effects?

Cohn—Professor, I tried it on a nickel and it wouldn't work.

Whisenant is going to order a magic lantern to take snad shots.

Col. Moon and Gen. Hudgins visited Bryan on the 20th of this month.

Cadet Brewer was on the sick list several days during the past month.

Cavitt tried to prove area of circle equals 3.1416 times diameter squared.

Professor—Mr. Cohn, place this substance on a piece of silver and see if it has sulphur in it.

If you have any clothing to be mended apply to the college tailor, R. W. Cousins, No. 4, Ross Hall.

The corps would like to know why Sam Cohn stopped playing through the telephone to the fair sex.

Since Morrison has begun to part his hair in the middle he is now recognized as the beau ideal of the A. & M.

Cadets Willis, Durham, Beazley, Person and Keith will comprise the "roosters club" during the base ball season.

Biering says he will grow large enough by commencement to be recommended for a corporalship. How about Faust H?

While looking at the skeleton of a mule in the veterinary department, Durham remarked: "We are truly and wonderfully made."