

Miss Stella Shepard of Bryan, and Miss Dent of Georgia, visited Mrs. Ross during the past month.

Miss Mary Bittle and her friend, Miss Katie McKenzie, of Bryan, entertained a few of the cadets on the evening of the 13th.

Preparations for commencement should be commenced at once, and let us make this one of the grandest in the history of the college.

Jack Knolle and Jack Beazley each have a new violin and the cadets are looking forward to some splendid music for the after-supper hops.

Prof. and Mrs. Whitlock, Profs. Kerr, Burgoon, Dr. Francis and Mr. Lewis witnessed the presentation of the silver service at Galveston.

Cadets Neely, Gordon and Moore visited Galveston on the 19th inst., to witness the presentation of the silver service to the battleship Texas.

Cadet Blalock is desirous of attaining manhood, and in consequence, side-burns and an eight-day old mustache have made their appearance.

At a recent meeting of the band and orchestra, Miss Rita Sbisa was chosen sponsor. The Battalion congratulates our young musicians on their good selection.

Col. Dan Cushing writes from Columbus, Miss., that he can't possibly do without the Battalion. Dan is a whole-souled fellow, and his many friends at college wish him much success.

The base ball season at College is open, and Farr and Person, while practising, undertook to make a grand stand play which resulted in Person sporting a mouth that resembles a Spalding base ball.

The band is hard at work preparing for the trip to Houston on the 21st of April. By-the-way, we have the best band and orchestra in the state, and Prof. Gross, to whom so much of their success is due, deserves great credit for his efforts.
