The Baylor Literary finds its way to the sanctum this month. It contains several bright articles. Miss Scarborough is to be complimented on “Annie Laura” in the January number.

The Southwestern University contains two articles that certainly deserve mention. “The Hero of San Jacinto” is a well written article on the life of Sam Houston, and “Was Cleveland justifiable in sending troops to the Chicago riot,” is excellent.

The Reveille again puts in its appearance with several short, crisp articles.

It is with pleasure we notice the Daniel Baker Collegian.
It is the same, bright, newsy sheet.

We are glad to welcome the Weatherford Collegian to our desk.

We note that the Literary Department of the K. S. C.
“Cadet” is very brief in the January issue.
