

wrote a good letter containing some sound ideas for the welfare of the college and which he contemplates placing before the Alumni Association next June.

C. S. Miller of Ballinger, is an enthusiastic A. & M. ex-cadet, is a man of sterling qualities and has influence and standing in his section. Why not run for the senate, Charley? Indeed, why not more of our boys go to the legislature and look after the interests of their alma mater.

H. Miller of Bellville, says he is working for the College, will be on hand next commencement and will bring as many old boys as he can, and will very likely send his nephew to the A. & M. next session. That is right Hermann! Success to you.

Judge Rogan of Brownwood, sent his annual dues to the Alumni Association and will attend our next commencement.

Let every man who has the least interest in his Alma Mater subscribe for The Battalion. You will then keep up with college news. You can have it from now till commencement for the small sum of 50 cents. Send it to A. J. Kyle, College Station, Business Manager of Battalion.

Alpha Phi Notes.

Senator J. M. Presler, of Commanche, says he will do everything in his power to further the cause of his Alma Mater, the A. & M. C. of Texas. Then join the Alpha Phi, Presler, and come to our banquet next commencement.

Senator C. V. Terrell, of Decatur, says he stands ready to do all he can to assist his Alma Mater, the A. & M. C. of Texas. Then join the Alpha Phi and come to our banquet next June and get acquainted with our A. & M. boys.

Representative Jno. M. Moore, of Richmond, is staunch and true to his Alma Mater, and no doubt by this time he has
