

All cadets who were not fortunate enough to get a copy of Prof. Gross' composition, the "A. & M. Cadets," should do so as this piece of music is destined to become the popular two-step of the season. Send 50 cents to Mr. G. W. Gross, Louisiana, Mo.

Judging from the large number of bouquets presented to members of the senior class upon graduation, they certainly made an impression on the fair sex.

S. C. B's.

Miss Philpott visited her brother Prof. Phillipott.

Mr. C. B. Donalson and Dr. F. C. Martin visited their sons.

Miss Annie Derden of Hillsboro, visited Miss Josephine Clark.

Miss Katie Hill of Hempstead, was the guest of Miss Rita Sbisa.

Dr. W. D. Wheelless of Marshall, was the guest of Dr. Frank Ross.

Miss Ethel Cavitt was the guest of Miss Sbisa during commencement.

Misses McKenzie and Clark of Bryan, were the guests of Miss Mary Bittle.

Miss Monroe of Rio Grande City, visited her brother, Corporal Monroe.

Misses Mamie and Estelle Cardwell of Houston, visited Miss Bessie Ross.

Mr. A. A. Pittuck of Texas Farm and Ranch, visited his son Prof. B. C. Pittuck.

Mr. L. S. Ross, Jr., of Marlin, was one of our welcome visitors, commencement.

Major Hadley Franklin of Houston, was a welcome visitor to our commencement.