

Who is the best singer in the choir? Sport Sneed of course.

Rountree wants to know what the mellissa of a hog is.

Newton wants to know how to dance.

Miss Nellie Smith, of Bryan, recently visited Miss Bessie Ross.

Prof. Kerr, expert piano turner, will be in the city for a few days. Charges moderate. ✓

Misses Cavitt and McKenzie were recent visitors on the campus.

The man that did'nt get any mail after the quarantine was raised wasn't much.

Quite a delegation from Bryan were out to hear the Smith Sisters. ✓

The weekly concerts given by the cadet band are a source of pleasure to all and help to pass the Friday evenings.

Scully says he surveys with a vernier chain.

During the recent quarantine Adjutant Smith carried onions in his pocket to keep off infection.

Tracy wants the boys to quit "goosing him at the C. E. practice."

They say that a certain officer inspects his stoop every night at tattoo.

Sneed wants to know the handkerchief flirtation.

Abbott is fond of making ether.

Carter wants to whip the editor if he puts in any more jokes on him.

"We are wonderfully and fearfully made," said Durham, as he gazed at the skeleton of a mule in the Veterinary laboratory.

We wonder why a certain cadet lingered so long at the gate—in town you know.