

Wanted—To be sent off and exchanged for a pair of chevrons.—Faust.

The second class wants an easier chemistry.

Newton has a mania for raising his cap—especially when the companies are passing in review.

Miss Bessie Ross is visiting in Dallas.

The two new professors residences are completed and are quite an addition to the campus.

We understand one of the bachelor professors has requested that a house be built for him. We wonder if he is going to live in it by himself.

What's the matter with the foot ball team? They're all right.

English Section Room. Prof.—“Mr. J. who was the father of King John?

Mr. J:—“The father of King John was King John's father.”

Prof.—“That will do Mr. J.” (zero).

Who said we wouldn't go to the fair?

We have the fastest foot ball team in the state and it should be supported accordingly.

We wonder why Tracy went to hear the Smith Sisters by himself?

We are certainly indebted to the Ladies' Ariel Sextette for the delightful music they furnished at the Sunday service.

Dr. Frank Ross of Houston, is visiting his parents.

The Battalion would like to have every cadet on its subscription list.

The following young ladies have been elected sponsors for the various companies: A company, Miss Mary Bittle; B company, Miss Ethel Cavitt; C company, Miss Bessie Ross; D company, Miss Rita Sbisá.

The College bicycle club have purchased that part of the