

(4)

MESSAGES OF CONDOLENCE.

New Orleans, La., January 4.—The following dispatch was sent from headquarters of the United Confederate Veterans today:

Mrs. L. S. Ross:

Austin, Texas, January 3.—My heart's tender sympathy is with you in this sad hour. John D. McCall.

Mrs. L. S. Ross:

Dallas, Texas, January 3.—Your great grief is ours. God will care for the noble spirit. Barnett Gibbs.

Mrs. L. S. Ross, Waco, Texas:

Hempstead, Texas, January 4.—The faculty of Prairie View State Normal school extend sincerest sympathy.

Mrs. Tom Padgitt, Waco, Texas.

Chattanooga, Tenn.—I claim the privilege of joining my tears with yours for a brother gone. Deepest sympathy for Mrs. Ross, George Clark.

Mrs. L. S. Ross:

Galveston, Texas, January 3.—You and yours have the sincere sympathy of my wife and myself in the death of your noble husband. Family, friends and country suffer an irreparable loss. Thos. J. Goree.

Mrs. L. S. Ross:

Marlin, Texas; January 3.—Our sincere sympathy in this your great bereavement. All Texas bows down with you in profoundest grief. Geo. A. King.

Chester Hale.