

EXCHANGE.

We take pleasure in announcing the arrival of the following exchanges :

The Lyre, Simmon's College Monthly; Purdue Exponent, The Gray Jacket, The Lake Breeze, The College Barometer, The Aerolith, Recorder, Add-Ran Collegian, Carlton College Gleaner, The High School Opinion, The Public School Review, The Guard and Tackle, The Daniel Baker Collegian, The Austin College Revielle, Santa Maria and St. Mary's Record.

In the December number of the Purdue Exponent is an interesting little love story entitled "The South Room." "Philosophy as an Educational Influence," in the same issue, contains much sound sense. "The Divided Cloud" a continued story in the Gray Jacket, is very interesting; "The Building Character" is also excellent. The Lyre is a neat little magazine, and is well edited. "A Visit to the Ruins of an Ante-Bellum Home," in Simmon's College Monthly is worthy of mention. The Carlton College Gleaner contains a very romantic article called "A Romance of the American Revolution."

The following from the exchange department of the A. C. Revielle is entirely uncalled for: "In Simmon's College Monthly 'A Sad Accident' is a very poorly written article." The death of a comrade by a comrade is a thing altogether too lamentable to be mixed up with trivial matters and spun out like a third class newspaper story." We are heartily in
