

LOCALS.

A wedding on the campus.

Ask Abbott '98 to show you his valentine.

Mrs. Reardon of Dallas visited her son last week.

For Sale—Collar buttons and shoe strings, by Lewis, A.

Harrison '98 and Rawlins '98 both received useful presents off the Xmas tree.

We are glad to welcome the return of Cadet Homann, '98, who has been away some two months on account of illness.

The base ball team has been thoroughly organized, and Captain Rawlins promises a winning team this season.

The First class held their first meeting last month, electing the following officers: President, G. Newton; vice-president, W. C. Martin; secretary, W. A. Harrison; treasurer, R. M. Barnes.

Cadet Clifford '00 is said to have dream't that he was a corporal and was posting his relief.

An interesting experiment in sheep feeding is being conducted by the agricultural department.

What is the attraction in Bryan for Green '01.

Mrs. Hutson gave quite an enjoyable dinner during the holidays; the principal delicacy being a "possum," captured on the previous night's hunt. Mrs. Connell also gave a similar dinner to a number of the agricultural students.

Kyle, '99, (reaching for his cap at end of first scene) ex-