

times that the dimed eye of the knight of the gridiron of old will sparkle with the old time fire as he recalls the event of that delightful eve and at the old A. & M. a tradition will speak of the hospitality of Mrs. Key and her girls.

As we hasten to say goodbye to friends so new, so dear, the thought comes to us:

“Make new friends but keep the old,
For the one silver for the other gold.”

—Erle.
