

Mr. A. B. Rawlins of Oak Cliff, visited his son, Capt. Rawlins.

Dr. Martin of Kyle, visited his son, Capt. W. C. Martin, during commencement.

Mr. Newton of Milano, was at College to see his son, Capt. Gus Newton, graduate.

Capt. R. M. Barnes of Comanche, was visited by his father and mother, and other friends.

C. B. Donalson of Kyle was at College to see his son, C. B. Donalson, Jr., graduate.

Mr. Homann was visited by his father and sisters during commencement.

Mr. Sneed was delighted to see his sister, Miss Ruth, at commencement.

Most all of the above visitors were entertained on the campus during their stay at College.

The board of directors were here and elected Mr. L. L. Foster as president. Everyone on the campus seems to be well pleased with the board's choice, and say that when the office has to seek the man he must be a good one.

Some of this year's second class are anxious to know if the new president has any girls.

Whisenant and Barnes, S., are the polished "sports" at College.

Holt M., is anxious to see the list of corporalships.

SNAP SHOTS.

Cliett wants to know what a "genus hobo" is?

Abbott (bug-hunter) says that planimeter is an instrument for making indicator cards.