

Societies.

At a joint meeting of the two societies Mr. R. J. Poulter was elected business manager of the Battalion.

At the last regular meeting of the societies the following officers were elected:

CALLIOPEAN.

President, Martin E.; vice-president, Kyle E.; secretary, Blake; treasurer, Brewer; librarian, Strain; censor, Eichblatt; corresponding secretary, Barton; critic, Spiller; sergeant-at-arms, Kendall; assistant editors Battalion, Spiller, Whisenant.

AUSTIN.

President, Sloss; vice-president, Lewis M.; critic, Horn; recording secretary, Blackwell; corresponding secretary, Saunders W.; treasurer, Bryan; censor, Barnes S., librarian, Fewell; sergeant-at-arms, Moseley; editor-in-chief of Battalion, Sloss; assistant editors, Bland, Blackwell.

JINGLES ON FIRST CLASS.

A is for Abbott, who is fond of the girls,
His favorite souvenirs are slippers and curls.
B is for Barclay, who once fell in love,
But somebody else went off with his dove.
B is for Barnes, the gallant, the gay,
In Bryan he spends each holiday.
B for Bretschneider, he's fond of his math,
And it's certain to keep him in the right path.
B is for Brogdon, without anger or strife;
He didn't get mad at the joke of "high life."
C is for Crow, a pretty tough meat,
I hope that I'll never have him to eat.
C is for Carter, who is sober and steady,
And yet for fun he's always ready.
D is for Donaldson, fond of foot ball,
In playing it once he got a bad fall.
E is for everyone in the first class,
And hoping they all will manage to pass.
F is Foutrel, a Frenchman by name,
But he's strictly American all the same.