

1st Lieut. W. E. Crow.—Doc, alias Cisco Pete, writes that up 'till July 1st, he made up for lost time, since then he has been preparing himself for Tulane this fall, by reading Anatomy.

C. B. Donalson Jr.—Jack has turned “Bug Hunter,” settled down and gone to farming. He intimates that he will not keep batch long. Among his farming implements is a long-handle hoe. Explanation—he purchased this so he can stay in town and chop.

Lieut. G. F. Foutrel is at home, San Antonio, and is at present taking a commercial course in one of the Business Colleges of that place.

Lieut. W. F. H. Glover, Yemassee, S. C., assisted in gathering the harvest after his return home. He has formed partnership with his father in the dairy business.

Lieut. F. J. Greenwood instructs me to correct the report here at college that he is married. It is gratifying to know that “Greeny” has had a position as Civil Engineer since June.

The remark has been made that Prof. Hudson's horses are in a much better condition this year than last. It is probably due to fewer trips to Bryan. He wants the Battalion.

Lieut. Wm. A. Harrison, Valedictorian of the class, who was so highly complimented on the address by competent persons, is keeping books for the American Book Co., Dallas, Texas. Scully spent the greater part of the summer at the favorite summer resort, College Station.