

L. L. FOSTER,
PRESIDENT OF THE AGRICULTURAL AND MECHANICAL COL-LEGE OF TEXAS.

[The following biographical sketch of our new President, is in the main copied from L. E. Daniels' personnel of the state government.]

L. L. Foster was born near Cumming, Forsythe County, Georgia, November 27, 1851. His boyhood was mainly spent on a farm, and his educational opportunities were limited to private schools and academies, which he attend-