BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The following self explanatory letter was recently sent out by the executive committee of the Alumni Association:—

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS, FEB. 8, 1899.

DEAR SIR:—

The Attorney General has held that the present law, which provides that the term of office of the Board of Directors of the A. & M. College shall be six years, is invalid because each member of the Board is paid at the rate of five dollars per day during meetings of the Board, which fact makes the position an office within the meaning of the constitution.

In accordance with this decision, the term of office of each member expires two years from the time of his appointment, and the term of office of the present Board will expire next June.

In order to give stability and permanency to the Col-
