

EDITORIAL.

To those readers of the Battalion who would like to know why there was such a change in the February issue, a few words of explanation may be of service to you. Owing to the fact that the Alumni have not been represented very often this year in our columns, it was agreed upon that the Alumni have the exclusive right to all the space in the February number to use as they wish. Therefore, be sure to give all praise to those who got it out.

*

* *

ORATORICAL BANQUET.

A banquet was given at the A. & M. College, Thursday night, April 20, 1899, by the corps of cadets, in honor of visiting representatives from other colleges here to contest for the State Oratorical Championship. Plates were