

HEADQUARTERS CORPS OF CADETS.

College Station, Texas, March 25, 1899.

Special Orders No. 999.

The following is published for the information and guidance of all concerned:

1. Cadet 2nd Lieut. Cousins is hereby reduced to ranks for neglect of duty. (Art. No. 888 Rules and Regulations—Every cadet is required to bathe at least twice a month.) If Mr. Cousins does not comply with the rules hereafter he will be taken to the laundry and given a thorough scrubbing.

2. Cadet Eastland is confined to the College limits for making an attack on an oyster bucket while at the train.

3. Cadet Fitzgerald is placed on probation because he says that his nose was broken when he was young. The truth is he is a JEW.

Mr. Larkin, is this the way you say good bye?

Mr. Melgaard, are you not going to kiss me good bye?

How did it happen to you, Buhler?

Charley—Astin give me a SEGARETTE, I want to make my debut into society.

Instruction given in darning. Apply to Mr. Fitzgerald.

Eggs 6c per dozen at Mess Hall.

The latest—Fitzgerald's hop.

Ask Boettcher why he is going to prepare for the ministry at Baylor.

Where was Command't Martin during the Ross hop?
