ATHLETICS.

Our First Annual Field Day.

The first Field Day in the history of this college took place on April 21st. We had been looking forward to this day for the last two months, during which time Prof. A. M. Soule and some of the cadets were never idle in arranging the program and inducing the students to take part and interest in such line of sport.

One great drawback was the manner in which some of the students and classes opposed the rivalry and class spirit which would necessarily arise during the contests; or perhaps they thought the Field Day would fall through and considered it too much trouble, combined with laziness and less college spirit, to help make same a success. Although the management had all these troubles to face, in the end they were all drowned and erased, and the victors have an event to point to which will mark an epoch in the history of athletics here at college. Just a few days be-
