

Cadet Davidson, the football player with plenty of nerve, was recently visited by his mother, Mrs. Davidson, of Fort Worth.

Mr. Henry Insall, of Weimar, was up to see Cadet Insall. He is well impressed with the college and the work being done here.

Hurst A., walking up to sponsor of _____ Co., says: "Are you sponsor of _____ Co.?"

Sponsor: "Yes, I reckon so."

Hurst: "I am in _____ Co., and also have a big brother in there."

Miss Hettie Smith, of Bryan, visited Mrs. Elena Edmonds the last of the week. While here she was a welcome visitor to the Calloopean Literary Society. Come again; glad to see you.

The following is a list of the many good things captured by the A. and M. College at the opening of the present session, as called from the students' roster: A Branch, a Bean, a Cook, a Carpenter, an Egg, a Fountain, a Field, a Fox, a Gardner, a Hill, a Hunter, some Hay, a Hyde, a Law, a Miller, a Noble, a Pickett, a Payne, several Parks, some Rice, a Smith, a Sheppard, a Storey a Savage, a Spring, a Spear, a Tanner, a Wren. We did have a "chicken," but it took wings and flew away to find its mate.

Lieut. Moseley went up to Dallas to attend the Fair opening. We do not know whether he attended the fair or not, but he certainly attended some other place of more attraction to him.

President L. L. Foster and son Joe went down to Galveston the last of the week, where Joe entered the medical college. Joe passed the examination with credit and we know he will make a good record. We are all glad to see Jodie starting in so well.

The college has an enrollment of 400 students, the largest in its history, and numerous applicants who will be accommodated as soon as the new dormitory is finished. Hurrah, for the A. and M.! She will soon stand equal in number with State University.

Senator Horace Chilton visited the college Friday, October 13. While here he reviewed the battalion and was very highly impressed by the military department of the college. Senator Chilton is a firm friend of the A. and M. Come again, Senator.

Clements B., before breakfast: "I was on Guard mount this morning, and didn't go."

Japhet's speech: "I don't want to be an angel, and with the angels stand; I'd rather be a drum major, and lead the A. and M. band."
