

man half back; Johnson H., who attends to the rear garden with Shultz, and Simpson, the sure tackler, who will attend to quarter back in his old form. Then there are Boettcher and Kildow, who are rapidly gaining their old form in line play.

Of course Frank Dwyer came back. He wanted to help his team defeat 'Varsity. Dwyer will assist at half again this year.

Captain Moseley will again play his old position at left tackle.

Farthing and Weimert, the only two new men on the team, are rapidly learning the game.

Prather, the star end, whom Capt. Moseley brought from Dallas, is an old-timer, having played on the best teams in Dallas.

Johnson C., who played a star half under Coach Taylor, is with us again.

Our second team is doing wonders for us. Never before have they shown up so well as they have in the past few days. Much credit is due the members of the second team for the showing they have made against the first.

And our coach—well, too much cannot be said about him. Just report and see the teams at work.

Coach Murray is undoubtedly without a rival in Texas.

The prospects for a victorious team at College were never brighter. With 42 men practicing regularly under an able coach, we should land away up the line.

'Varsity, 'Varsity,
Who are they?
Surely not State champion,
For wait till you see A. M. C.

FOOTBALL SEASON '99 OPENED.

THE first game of the season was played on the college gridiron October 7, between the Houston football team and the crimson and white of A. M. C.

Promptly at 3:40 Capt. Moseley led his eleven sturdy athletes upon the field amid a cheer from the boys and a hand-clap from the young ladies.

Captains De Lesdeanier and Moseley tossed the coin for choice of goals. Moseley won, and selected the famous "East End."

De Lesdeanier kicked off 40 yards, but the ball was advanced 30 yards before the runner could be downed.

It took only two plays before the first touch-down was scored. After that the Houston boys seemed to lose all hopes, as the ball was carried over their goal for seven more touchdowns in the next 33 minutes' plays.

College's new interference was too much for the visitors, but much practice is needed before it will come up to the requirements of Coach Murray. For Houston, De Lesdeanier played the star game.

College has no stars. All the
