

LOCALS.

Miller wants to get first prize at S. M. I.

Lieut. Boettcher visited Dallas to witness the Kaliph parade.

How about Fry's application for a corporalship?

Mr. Murray, our new football coach, visited Dallas.

O'Rourk says Scherer was joshed at the hop.

Fry says the guys in the shops are not ball-bearing.

Savage wants to bet 3 to 1 that College can beat Princeton.

Ask Buhler G. if face powder helps his looks.

Biering wants to know if tincture of arnica is 30 drops.

For dress-making apply to Leblance.

Lewis J. called on Lieutenant Winkler and left his card.

Biering wants to know what a fast girl is.

Ask Boettcher what will make Moseley mad; if he cannot tell you Prather can.

Boettcher (speaking of the asphalt pavement in Dallas) said: "Moseley, you all certainly have pretty kalsomined streets here."

Ask McCormick who it was Fitzgerald wanted to recommend as guide of the signal corps.

Mr. and Mrs. Brazelton are here visiting their son George, who is very sick with pneumonia.

Fish and McCormick. "Mr. McCormick, are you taking a blacksmith course?"

Ask Lieut. Clements if it is warm rooming in a wardrobe during inspection.

Mack Wren put some bran on his head so he could have a cowlick.

Bryan W. P. wants to know if they will give a corporalship to a Fourth classman.

Corporal Harrison spent several days at the Dallas fair. He reports a fine time.

Taylor L. as S. G. wants to take class reports before breakfast.