

THE BATTALION.

VOL. 7.

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS, NOVEMBER, '99.

NO. 2.

THE BATTALION.

Entered at the College Station Post Office as second-class mail matter.

Published monthly by the Austin and Calliopean Literary Societies of the A. & M. College.

SUBSCRIPTION—$1 00 per annum in advance.

STAFF.

R. B. Boettcher, '00	Business Manager.
C. P. Rogers, '00	Assistants.
Hal Moseley, '00
O. M. Simpson, '00	Editor in Chief.
C. P. Rogers, '00	Editors Literary Dept.
J. A. Carter, '00
Wm. Walden, '00	Editor Agricultural Dept.
F. K. McGinnis, '00	Editor Horticultural Dept.
W. S. Bryan, '00	Ed. Mechanical Eng. Dept.
W. C. Luhrsen, '00	Ed. Civil Eng. Dept.
T. W. Griffiths, '00	Ed. Military Dept.
A. Winkler, '00	Editors Exchange Dept.
R. B. Boettcher, '00
O. M. Simpson, '00	Editors Athletic Dept.
Hal Moseley, '00
C. E. Story	Editor Local Dept.
J. C. Harrison	Editor Social Dept.
F. Marian Law	Editor Alumni Dept.

Address all communications to Business Mgr.

WELL, boys, we are at work once more, trying to produce something that will interest you. It is our great hope to make THE BATTALION a paper of interest to all, and we shall endeavor in every way to accomplish this. If anyone has anything he thinks would be of interest to the boys, or other readers of our journal, we will be only too glad to publish it. It seems to be a general idea that no one but the editor can write for THE BATTALION. This is a very mistaken idea, and we hope that every one will feel it his duty to write something for our paper. This journal is of the College and by the College, and it is just what the students and the members of the school make it. So, now, let's all unite and work together, for through the influence of this paper we can build our dear old College up and give her a place among the colleges of our nation that she has never enjoyed before.

WE are sorry to see that some of the boys have so little thought for the College property. Boys, you should take a second thought before you mistreat the property in your room or on the campus. Think how kind the legislature has been to us; remember the appropriations it has given us, and show our statesmen that you appreciate their kindness by doing all in your power to preserve property belonging to the College. We know that you are a little crowded in barracks now, but