

SOCIAL.

THE THANKSGIVING HOP.

SELDOM has a more lovely scene been beheld than the ball-room during the last Thanksgiving hop, held on Friday, Dec. 1. The large and brilliantly lighted hall, with the varied and handsome costumes of those present, enhanced the beauty of the occasion. The crowd was not too large, the weather was pleasant, and every element was present for a royal good time.

Erb's orchestra furnished delightful music. The grand march was led by Col. Foster and Miss McLellan, of Hillsboro, and included several pretty movements. There were many visiting ladies and gentlemen from adjacent towns, as well as the belles and beaux of Bryan. Two-step succeeded waltz, to be followed by schottische, the dancers never seeming to weary until at 2:30 the strains of "Home Sweet Home" closed the delightful Thanksgiving hop. Mrs. ———Bailey, of Houston, chaperoned a party of young ladies from that city, coming on a special car. The party included Misses Anna Quinlan, Marcita Delgado, Effie Jones and Miller, Misses Frenchel Smith, of Dallas, and Virginia Wheedon, of Louisiana, visited Mrs. Harrison.

Misses Ada and Bertha Beeker, of Brenham, and Marian Foster, of Bryan, were guests of Mrs. Foster.

Mrs. Hutson's house party included Misses Lott, from Navasota, Berta Booker, of Brenham, Rose Shields and Suggs, of Bryan.

Mrs. Bittle entertained Misses Trino Shields of Bryan, Velas W. Steffen and Edna Reinhardt, of Hearne.

Miss Gardner, of Bellville, sister of Claude Gardner, was a guest of Mrs. Edmonds.

Misses Marie Adams and Ethel Cavitt, of Bryan, visited Mrs. Connell.

Miss McLellan, of Hillsboro, was a guest of Mrs. Philpot.

Among those present from Bryan were Misses Stella Parker, Nellie Smith, Marie Mistrot, Josie Clarke, May and Maggie Pitts, Elma Harbers.

Among the visiting gentlemen were seen Dr. Allen Kyle, of Houston, Messrs. Edwards, of Beaumont, Dashiell and Saunders, of Calvert, Kirk Harrison, of Brenham.

BAYLOR'S RECEPTION.

Although our foot-ball players were deprived of a Thanksgiving dinner, still they say that their visit to Waco was one of the pleasantest they ever made. It is indeed true that our boys were not very much interested during the game. After the Baylor students saw that they could not show us such