THE officers of Company A were invited to attend an anti-nuptial reception given to their sponsor, Miss Stella Shepard, at the residence of Mr. W. S. Norvell's, Jan. 31. As many of the boys as could were present and enjoyed a happy time, being warmly welcomed by the bride-elect, who introduced them to her future husband, Mr. Sanford. The pretty girls of Bryan were out in full force, and assisted in entertaining the boys in brass buttons. Before the close of the entertainment, Mr. F. Marion Law presented an elegant enameled watch to Miss Shepard, in the name of Company A, with a delightful and appropriate speech, to which Mr. Sanford replied in a few well chosen words. Miss Shepard is a young woman of rare mental attainments, of remarkable tact, and has a charm of manner that is indescribable, thus rendering her a queen in society wherever she is known. She will be very much missed at College, for she has been a great favorite among the cadets, and has proved herself a true friend to them. The best wishes of the entire corps attend her in her new path in life.

The dance given complimentary to Miss Ruby Lee Melgard, of Brazoria, Texas, on the 21st of January, was the first on the list of dances at the College in 1900. There was not a very large crowd present, but enough to have a very pleasant time. Every one seemed to enjoy themselves and were sorry to hear the strains of "Home, Sweet Home." The following is the list of couples that were present: Miss Elma Harbers, B. P. Melgard; Miss Lavinia McConico, Claude Gardner; Miss Mytre Conway, J. S. Monroe; Miss Mellie Smith, Rob Reardon; Miss Lucy Board, Sylvan Biering; Miss Buhla Edmonds, Henry Japhet; Miss Ellena Edmonds, Jerome Harrison; Miss Marie Shields, Cary Hutson; Miss Estella Harmon, Ralph Chatham; Miss Ruby Melgard, Tom Clements; Miss Marion Foote, Will Buhler; Miss Mary Hutson, B.
