

unfortunate, a great many promising men on last year's scrub are missing. At the call for candidates about thirty-five men responded, most of them without any football experience, and some few the squad, and it is the duty of all connected with the College to keep this valuable adjunct to success alive and keyed up to the highest pitch. The captain and coach have a big proposition before with a slight knowledge of the game. The men size up fairly well, being neither very large nor very small, and all are as yet of undetermined value. What we need to do now is work hard and work together. Enthusiasm is not lacking either in the corps of cadets or among them, which is practically to develop a new team from green material and bring it up to last year's standard.

WM. A. MURRAY, THE "STAR" COACH OF THE SOUTH.

Among the candidates are Moseley, Weinert, Schultz, Hyde, Brown, Foster, Thrower, Jordon, James, Perry, Lucy, Gray, Gebhardt, Edison, McGinnis, Noble,