

"Peckings From 'Peck.'"

Peck says he doesn't stand any more chance passing in "Little Jimmie" than Bonnie Youngblood has of getting in society.

* * *

Peck says that if he passes in English he will put on long pants.

* * *

Peck says that once there was a stingy man who, after chewing his tobacco, threw it on the wall to let it dry. After it had dried he smoked it and then used the ashes to clean his teeth.

* * *

Peck, the first-class sport.

* * *

Peck says he has been taking anti-fat.

* * *

Peck says that if he had known that he was going to study argumentation he would have worked in a Jew dry goods store all summer.

* * *

Peck says he couldn't get in an engineering office on a visit.

* * *

Puckett, at C. E. practice:—"Get away from that transit with that hatchet, don't you know you can't level it with it close by?"

* * *

Ask Tom Cobbs and Henry Davenport how many times they went riding on the "Flying Jennie" in Bryan?

* * *

For quotations on cattle tell Mr. Sbisa to call on Harral.

* * *

While the football team was passing the apiary, some one said "there is the apiary." Hope said "where are the apes?"

* * *

Flying glass is not good for bald heads.

Ask Hope about that trust in Bryan.

* * *

McKnight—the celebrated German translator; successor to Tilson & Isbell.

* * *

Japhet—the "blather-skite" for South End.

* * *

"Fish Kinsloe, the masher."

* * *

Shorty Risien made his debut in society a few Saturday nights ago.

* * *

Which would be the cheaper, for Mr. Sbisa to buy saws to saw the meat, or to have "tenderer" meat?

* * *

"Fish," looking at Warden's class-pin while latter was O. D.:—"Did you get that for good lessons? If you did, reckon I will ever get one?"

* * *

Ikey Baum, the man to lead the grand march.

* * *

Prof. Puryear to "Fish":—"What nationality are you?"

* * *

Fish:—"I am from Colorado county."

* * *

Who was the fish that went after electric light oil?

* * *

Ask Hope if he got his "student-labor" for drilling.

* * *

Hope is going to change his name to Holzman so the ladies will call him.

* * *

If you study chemistry at the A. M. C. You will make many a zero under P. S. T.

* * *

A cadet's conduct varies inversely as the square of the distance between him and the professor's desk.