

EDITORIAL

The Battalion.

Published Monthly by the Austin and Calliopean Literary Societies of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas.

Entered in the Postoffice at College Station, Texas, as Second-class Matter.

Subscription, - - - - $1.00 per year in advance

Address all Communications to the Business Manager.

STAFF

J. W. OLIPHINT, - - - - -	Editor-in-Chief
W. E. BEILHARZ, - - - - -	Business Manager
F. MCGREGOR, - - - - -	Literary Editor
E. P. WEATHERBY, - - - - -	Exchange Editor
W. E. BEILHARZ, - - - - -	Athletic Editor
H. F. MATHEWS, - - - - -	Local Editor
S. HUTSON, - - - - -	Society Editor
M. HUTSON, - - - - -	Society Editor

“Improper conduct shows lack of common sense.”

The first entertainment of the Y. M. C. A. Lyceum Course was indeed an enjoyable one. It was a “Musical” given by the “Chicago Glee Club.” Everyone present was treated to a program that was excellent throughout. The Y. M. C. A. boys deserve the aid of every person on the campus in this work. No little expense has been incurred in the endeavor to make this the best course in the history of the College. It is purely and primarily for the benefit of the College community and in return every person on the campus should show appreciation of the efforts of these boys.

“Men must learn to labor and to wait if they succeed.”

“Our minds are given us, but our characters we make.”

The accompanying letter was certainly a source of gratification to both faculty and student body. During the past few years the College has indeed made rapid strides to progress and it is a pleasure to know that this fact is appreciated by our old students. Friends we must have, and there are none more true and lasting than those boys who have gone out from these old walls. The love for their Alma Mater and the pride in its advancement have not, nor will they ever, die in the hearts of those young men who have gone forth from here to combat with the world. It makes the students of today proud to know that the Institution has friends who are willing to