

Professor of Languages: "Now, Mr. Cochran, how would you form the preterit of Hablar in Spanish?" Cadet Cochran: "Take away the stem and add the ending to the root.

* * *

Capt. Avery (watching ball game between A. and M. and Tulane): "Go ahead, Tulane, squeeze them all you please, you can't hurt our boys—they've been living on storage beef."

* * *

The McLavy Detective Agency.—Skilled detectives furnished on short notice. We are particularly successful in detecting wood-throwers. Drop us a line if you are in need of our services.

* * *

Guggy: "You shust ought to have seen the girls wave at me."

Bystander: "Do you know why they were waving at you?"

Guggy: "No, vat for?"

Bystander: "They wanted you to get your nose out of the way so they could see the football game."

* * *

An Explanation.

College Station, Tex., Oct. 12, 1902.

Report:—Occupants of 15 Pfeuffer, sweeping out after the janitor.

Explanation:—Sir:—I do hereby state upon my word of honor as a gentleman of this College that I did not sweep out after the janitor had swept, and that the report is a mistake.

I have proof by two fellow cadets, who were in my room at the time, that I did not sweep out into the hall.

The trash evidently came from further down the hall and was swept in front of my door in order that the responsibility should be cast upon my shoulders.

It would be self evident that if I had swept out into the hall, that I would not have left the trash in front of my door.

I think that the person that would do such a thing has very little principle about him. I leave the matter to your discernment.

Very respectfully,

JEROME COCHRAN,

Cadet Private Co. C., Second Class.

Coming!!!

Coming!!!

The Great Attraction

Heidelberg's Conciliations with

"THE JEW" ! ! ? ? ! ! o x x

Played with brilliant success for 50 nights at Sbisa's Roof Gardens, College

Station, Texas. Now

represented by

 GEORGE W. RISIEN

Formerly representing the Model Laundry now of

The George W. Risien Operatic Company
On the Steenth of December, Nineteen
Hundred and froze to death. : : :

