

pride that may not easily be overcome. One cannot be a citizen worthy of the name, if he is not a man of honor. Therefore, it behooves every cadet, when placed upon his honor, to watch and guide himself with care, and to perform his duty to the best of his ability.

The editors of the Battalion are glad to announce that they have secured the services of Professor Lomax and Professor Potts to supervise the Battalion matter before publication. Mr. Lomax has been connected with college magazine work for several years at the University of Texas, and delights in such work. Mr. Potts also takes much interest in college magazine work. Both these gentlemen are much interested in the Battalion. The editors are to be congratulated in securing their services.

PROGRAM OF AUSTIN LITERARY SOCIETY FOR SATURDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 21st, 1903.

Music

Oration—Stephen F. Austin.....Clonts

Recitation.....Wilson E.

Comic Speech.....Pape

Music

Address—The Action of San Mateo; The Death of Major General Henry W. Lawton.....Capt. H. H. Sargent