

The date for this open meeting is looked forward to by the members of the Austin Society with pleasure, for it is the anniversary of the Society's twenty-seventh year. This meeting will be held in the Chapel, and everybody is invited to attend. The Society was fortunate in securing the services of Captain H. H. Sargent, who will be the principal speaker of the occasion. We feel certain that his address will be worth listening to, and every cadet should avail himself of the opportunity of hearing him.

Last year the A. & M. football team, by clean, honest playing won the "Championship of the South." This year the team has not made such a record. The University of Oklahoma succeeded in defeating the "Champions." The reverse was of course much regretted, but the players were not once discouraged. In the game with Trinity, the heroes of many a football battle were again doomed to defeat. It might be thought that the result of these two games would cause discontentment, but not so. However bitter the defeats may be, the boys do not lose hope of yet making up for the past. Hard practice is the order of the day. So eager are the players to become prepared to wipe out the defeats, that no effort is ill-spent. The reverses have not made the corps less loyal to their team. This fact was clearly demonstrated when upon the return of the defeated from Trinity, the cadets left their beds in the early morn to welcome and cheer their defeated warriors. It is pleasing to
