

Congratulations are in order for Mr. W. W. Bavington, Mr. Conradi, Prof. J. C. Nagle and Dr. Trapps.

We congratulate the following young ladies: Miss Jennie Howell as sponsor of company "A," Miss Mable Robinson as sponsor company "B," Miss Mary Hutson as sponsor of company "C," and Miss Alice Myers as sponsor of company "D."

ALUMNI.

CLASS '03.

R. H. Mansfield holds a position with the Beaumont & Sour Lake Construction Company.

L. B. Warden has located at Beaumont, doing engineering work for the T. & N. O. Railroad Co.

H. F. Mathews has just recovered from his illness, and will soon be on the Campus, where we hope, with the help of a good rest and our invigorating atmosphere, he will soon be as strong as ever.

W. E. Beilharz is at work in Houston for Mr. Theo Beilharz, who is constructing the new Commercial National Bank building.

L. R. Beeman is at El Paso, draughtsman for the S. P. Railroad Co.

Mr. Guy Moore is at his home in DeKalb. We understand that he has gone into business with his father.

George W. Resein is at Elkhart, Ind., working for the